

ADVERTISEMENT FOR ENGAGEMENT OF YOUNG PROFESSIONALS IN REGIONAL AUTHORITY, AHMEDABAD, DIRECTORATE GENERAL OF FOREIGN TRADE, MINISTRY OF COMMERCE.

Directorate General of Foreign Trade (DGFT) is an attached office of the Ministry of Commerce and Industry and is headed by the Director General of Foreign Trade. From its inception the organization has played a critical role in trade promotion through regulation. Keeping in line with policies of liberalization and globalization introduced in 1991 and the overall objective of increasing of exports, DGFT has since been assigned the role of “facilitator”. The shift was from prohibition and control of imports/exports to promotion and facilitation of exports/imports, keeping in view the interests of the country.

DGFT is responsible for formulation and implementation of the Foreign Trade Policy with the main objective of promoting exports of the country. This Directorate also issues scrips/authorizations to exporters and monitors their corresponding obligations through a network of 24 regional offices.

The various offices of DGFT, known as Regional Authorities, act as the field offices of the DGFT, enabling implementation of the Foreign Trade Policy. The Regional Authority at Ahmedabad is one of offices of DGFT and has jurisdiction over northern Gujarat. Due to the bustling trade in and around Ahmedabad, the office offers great opportunity for learning.
