8.03 Online Filing and Tracking of Quality Complaints/Trade Disputes

A request for investigation and settlement of quality complaint/trade dispute would be filed online by an Indian/foreign entity at "www.dgft.gov.in>Services>Quality Complaints & Trade Disputes>fill Online Application Form". Such complaint would be submitted online to the jurisdictional Regional Authorities of DGFT as well as to the concerned Indian Mission. On submission, a Unique Reference Number will be generated and sent to the email id of the complainant. The complainant can also upload supporting documents along with the complaint or later on.

8.04 Mechanism for resolving Quality Complaints/Trade Disputes

i. CQCTD in the Regional Authorities of the DGFT would take up the matter with the concerned entity or authorities in their jurisdiction for resolving the complaint and would update status online on a regular basis,

- ii. Wherever necessary, action would be taken against the erring Indian Entity under the Foreign Trade (Development & Regulation) Act, 1992, as amended and the Foreign Trade (Regulation) Rules, 1993, as amended,
- iii. The Indian Missions would take up the issue with authorities concerned for resolving the complaint and would update status online on regular basis.
- iv. The facility of tracking and viewing status of the complaints/disputes by the complainant has also been provided on the DGFT website.

8.05 Choice to pursue other options

This mechanism is to provide an additional window for resolution of complaints/disputes to create confidence in business environment in the country. Efforts would be made to resolve the complaints amicably and expeditiously. However, this mechanism is only conciliatory in nature. The aggrieved parties are free to pursue any other course of action including legal action against the erring party. Disputes between two Indian parties or between two foreign parties are not covered under this mechanism.
